

A Place to Call Your Own

Whether they're designed for work, play or simply for relaxation, special spaces can add a unique and personal touch to any log home. Incorporate your own special area in your cabin and you're guaranteed to fall even deeper in love with your logs.

Space with a view. The porch is an ideal spot to relax and take in your surroundings. Consider adding padded chairs or a bench swing to create a welcoming retreat that is perfect for intimate gatherings or some quiet time alone. A rocking chair and large bench swing complete with pillows and a blanket provide this family with a comfortable, charming outdoor getaway.

For the ultimate cozy retreat, consider incorporating a reading space into your log home. These homeowners devoted an entire room to reading, complete with built-in shelves and snug seating. Situated in the corner of the home, myriad windows and a whitewash finish help keep the room bright.

Dine-in comfort. Perfect for intimate dining or your early-morning coffee, an eating nook adds a special, unexpected touch to your log home. This cozy niche boasts padded cushions on a built-in U-shaped bench. Its location under large windows highlights the home's beautiful setting.

A unique vintage. No longer just for storing vino, a wine cellar offers a one-of-a-kind backdrop for intimate dinner parties and small wine-tasting events. The simple, wooden sitting area set against light stone walls transforms this cellar into an elegant yet charming retreat for its owners.
